DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

The amendment filed 07/30/2009 has been entered. Claims 1-4, 6-36

Claim Objections

Claims 1-4, 6-13, 25, and 27-31 are objected to because of the following informalities:
the word "solidify" is misspelled. It is suggested to replace "solidigy" with "solidify".
Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-4, 6-13, 25, and 27-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Claim 1 recites the flame retardant as the only component allowed to solidify. The specification describes the process for producing the suspension wherein the fluoropolymer is mixed with molten flame retardant and the mixture is allowed to solidify (See [0032] of the corresponding PG Pub).

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4, 6-13, 25, and 27-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 1, Applicants characterize the concentrate as a solid suspension yet the flame retardant is molten. If it is not the Applicants' intent to express their invention as a product-by-process, there should be some mention of restoring the flame retardant to a solid condition. The specification describes the process for producing the suspension wherein the fluoropolymer is mixed with molten flame retardant and the mixture is allowed to solidify (See [0032] of the corresponding PG Pub). For the purpose of this Office Action, the suspension will be treated as it has been allowed to solidify.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 07/30/2009 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. The following comments apply:

A) Applicants' assertion that amended claim 1 should successfully overcome the 112, second paragraph rejection (page 2) is not persuasive. Due to the newly added limitation to claim 1, the limitations now presents new matter and still renders the claims indefinite.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
